By JACK POLLARD
News Editor

Community leaders along with residents of Lemon Grove and elected officials are expected to turn out tomorrow afternoon between 4 and 7 p.m. for the opening of the new Chamber of Commerce office at 3415 Imperial, Lemon Grove.

The Chamber made the move recently and is in the process of completing it' transition stage in the relocation. The Chamber was located at 3562 Grove st., prior to the move.

Frank Shughrue, jr., president of the Chamber said that the new home has an estimated 60 square yards of space available for use.

Shughrue said, "This is a community office to be used by the community. The space is available to any organization or club that would like to use it for meetings.

Miss Lemon Grove, Chris Collier, members of the County Board of Supervisors, Fire Department officials, along with other area officials have received invitations to the open house.

The new office has wall-to-wall carpeting. The carpeting, along with other furniture and fixtures have been provided by merchants, service clubs and individuals throughout the community.

Efforts Praised

Shughrue said, "The cooperation of the clubs and from the people interested in the Chamber and the future of Lemon Grove has been very helpful.

"It is these people that have also helped with some of the burden of the costs for the new facility. They have also donated time, money and their efforts to make our new home one that the community will take pride in having."

"I would like to give special credit to Al Woods, Joyce Foss, Russell's Plumbing and to Noel Hanson for their time and efforts in making the physical move possible," Shughrue said.

Lemon Grove has more than 500 business establishments. The Chamber office services firms and individuals with any information about this community that is requested.

The Chamber dates back to 1927 when William West was named president of the organization. Since that time S. D. Eckler, J. H. Bjornstad, Mrs. A. O. Treganza, Ernest Sunbury, Frank Barber, and George B. White have served as presidents.

Other past presidents include Jim Pearce, Ted Haal, John Hill, Forrest Baxter, Ray Nielson, Robert Gauldin, Mrs. Zelda Vernier, Dr. Robert Swenson, Earl Smart and Bruce Harms.

Also, Ernest Newton, Bill Parker, Larry Folda, B. C. Hesser, Bob Vaught, Sam Pernicano, Al Woods, Dr. Sam Smith, and Robert L. Browne.

The board of directors of the Chamber is currently made up of Shughrue, Gary Conrad, as vice president, Al Woods, treasurer and Wally Knutson, secretary.

Others include Jim Dorman, Sam Pernicano, Bob Russell, Dr. Don Johnson, Bob Howell, Dr. George Brassington, Bill Vandenberg, Cliff Clark, Louise Warren, Charles Hesser, Dr. Sam Smith, Hal Lenox, Ed Loop, and Noel Hanson.

Francis Faucher is an associate member. Marie Lowe is a director at large for the group.

Shughrue said that any persons interested in the com-

Food Program Adopted In San Diego County

Low income families in San Diego County will be able to receive about one-third of their food needs, without cost, starting on January 13. The program will effect families who do have an income of less than $285 per month and liquid assets not over $1,500.

It has been estimated that about 90 per cent of all farm-tenant families and many service families in the county will be eligible for the surplus food program. All welfare households will be eligible.

A center will be established in the East County area. It is expected that more than 17,000 families or over 35,000 persons in San Diego Ctunty will be eating better as a result of the program.

In a typical month, the household of four could expect to receive: dry beans, 8 lbs.; corn meal, 10 lbs.; corn grits, 2 lbs.; canned meat, 4 cans; peanut butter, 2 lbs.; margarine, 5 lbs.; dry potatoes, 4 lbs.; raisins/prunes, 3 lbs.; evaporated milk, 8 cans; dry milk, 17 lbs.; split peas, 2 lbs.

Also cheese, 6 lbs; flour, 20 lbs.; lard, 4 lbs.; rice, 8 lbs.; rolled oats, 6 lbs.; fruit/vegetable juice, 4 cans; egg mix, 2½ lbs; corn syrup, 4 pints; canned vegetables, four cans; and canned chicken, 2 cans.

Low Cost To County

The program is expected to cost the county about $140,000 for the year. Some $2.4 million in foods are expected to be producted annually from the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

San Diego County along with Los Angeles County are expected to enter in a joint agreement in the venture.

Problem Exists

One possible problem exists within the new program. That is the method of distribution to the aged users.

Supervisor Robert C. Dent told this newspaper earlier, that aged persons, without transportation will present the greatest difficulty.

It is expected that volunteer agencies, and the county, will need to undertake an education program to help families use the food well, and to expand their diets through the use of normal food budgets according to a spokesman.

Scheidle Resigns City Post

Harry Scheidle, San Diego City Councilman, recently elected to the County Board of Supervisors has resigned from his post with the City.

The move came Tuesday with his resignation effective immediately. His announcement came as a surprise to the council. It was the first one of three to be accepted by the council.

The other two are expected from Jack Walsh, also elected to the Board of Supervisors, and Tom Hom who is to take office as an assemblyman.

The possibility that a major dispute could take place is up in the air. A clash may result over the appointment versus election procedures in seating men for the three seats.

Hom's resignation is expected in two or three weeks, while Walsh was said that he will resign "as soon as possible."

Scheidle will present Lemon Grove and Spring Valley on the county supervisors board when he takes his now post. He defeated incumbent Supervisor Robert C. Dent in the November elections.

Christmas Cheer Near

Each year, newsmen of the various media of the County, become involved in a holiday project known as Operation Orphan.

Last year a near-full truckload of rather prosaic merchandise was shipped from Lemon Grove and Spring Valley donors to an orphanage near Mexicali. But to the orphans of the Good Shepherd, the stuff made their Christmas meaningful.

This year the program is going to be repeated. We'll use Ken Reiley's letter, as we did last year, to explain the project.

The San Diego Chapter of Sigma Delta Chi, the professional journalistic society, sponsors the project. But fellow newsmen believe that things as useful as this need not be kept a secret from those who feel charitable at Christmastide. Anyone may give!

Gifts may be delivered to the shop of this newspaper at 7834 Lester ave., Lemon Grove.

To fully explain the project, we herewith reprint Reiley's letter:

Dear SDXer:

For the eighth consecutive year, the last two officially, our chapter will sponsor Operation Orphan, our annual Christmas project.

It involves fulfilling the Christmas wishes of the girls who live in the House of the Good Shepherd orphanage in Mexicali. This is done by requesting a letter to Santa Claus written by the individual girl and which is sent to me for distribution. The letters are written in English on a blackboard and the girls are asked to copy the sample containing what she wants and needs most.

Customarily they ask for either a sweater, material for a dress or a pair of shoes, plus various odds and ends like combs, brushes, undies, etc. The usual cost of the total request runs around $5, give or take a buck or two and depending upon what items the giver wants to add.

Many Sigma Delta Chi members already are involved and have been participating since the onset of the project. They collect all the gift packages and just before Christmas load them into station wagons and pickup trucks and take them to the orphanage. Anyone is welcome to come along. Volunteers to help collect the packages are needed. Storage areas for the gifts until they are transported also are needed.

It started during one of the annual Mexican-American press soirees at an old casino south of Tijuana. While we were in the casino enjoying the festivities, someone noticed a group of little girls milling around the yard. Bill Giandoni of Copley News Service and I investigated and learned we had taken over the temporary sleeping quarters of about 40 orphan girls who were on the coast enjoying the ocean through the generosity of a bus owner. They were staying in the casino, but had to get out while the press party was under way.

We learned that the girls, ranging in age from 2 to 18, lived in the House of the Good Shepherd and did not celebrate Christmas with a gift exchange, because they were too poor. The nun in charge was asked to have the smaller children write letters to Santa requesting their needs with the promise that we would try to get them fulfilled.

Resulting publicity from friendly newsmen made it easy to dispose of the few letters, so all the 150 girls in the orphanage were asked to write letters. They did and eventually they were distributed. We took the gifts to the orphanage and gave the girls their first Christmas in history at which they received something brand new.

We later learned that the girls are taught to sew, but that only one sewing machine was available to them. A little friendly publicity brought in 68 machines, which we took to them. They had to build a building to house them and the girls now are accomplished seamstresses.

The project has continued through the help of many and through the generosity of many — and it is going on again this year. I have the letters to Santa and will distribute them to any SDX member who would like to participate.

If you would like a letter, or would like to help in some other way, simply contact me and you will be accommodated. If you would like to help but can't do the shopping, financial aid is welcome and someone else will do the shopping for you.

Extra cash is used for turkey, ice cream, a tree, or whatever happens to be needed at the orphanage. This year there is a critical need for blankets, sheets and pillowcases, new or used, since the temperature falls below freezing out there. Only the smallest girls ever taste milk — and then only one glass per week, except when we come to the rescue.

It's a simple and inexpensive way to spread a little Christmas cheer where it really is needed and appreciated.

Sincerely,
Kenneth C. Reiley

Jamul School District Protests Preserve Plan

E. M. "Mike" Meyer, district superintendent of the Jamul-Las Flores Union School District said Tuesday that district trustees had instructed him to protest the formation of an agricultral preserve district for the Daley Ranch in Jamul.

Meyer said that the school district would suffer if school revenues dropped in proportion to the reduction in taxes brought about by the "preserve" status of the 8,000 acres of Daley ranch.

Meyer said that the school district was already laboring under a high students-to-teacher ratio.

He said the letter to the Board of Supervisors vigorously protested any changes that would lessen the school district's revenue.

"Almost any increase in taxation at present would work a greater hardship on property owners now supporting the school district," he said.

"If the Supervisors pursue their purpose in creating the preserve, it could take $10,000 to $17,0000 of the district's operating revenue," he said.

VISA Program Shines New Light

As told to
Max Goodwin

VISA means passport to most people but at Vista La Mesa school in Lemon Grove it is a passport to better education.

VISA is an acronym for Vista La Mesa's Individualized Student Assignment program, according to the school's principal Mrs. Elizabeth Higgins who will have earned her doctorate in Education before the end of the year.

The program has four purposes, Mrs. Higgins says. 1.) permits each child to learn as much as he can without gradeline limitations;

2.) encourages each student to develop a healthy respect for himself and others;

3.) individualized instruction as much as possible with present human resources;

4.) gives each child a chance for varied experiences in subject matter, skills as well as in communications, interaction with other youngsters and exposure to large and small groups and working with people of all ages.

New teaching concepts are brought into play, Mrs. Higgins said. Flexible scheduling, team teaching, and special reading teachers bring an atmosphere of newness to the program, which is used in graded and nongraded classes.

Non-Graded Classes

Nongraded classes group youngsters who might be either in the first three or the last three grades. He is given the opportunity to associate and learn from younger or older children and to utilize the full gamut of his talents and to develop leadership abilities without undue pressure, Mrs. Higgins said.

Vista La Mesa's classes are split about even — nongraded and graded. But the objective in both are the same — that every one must be encouraged to achieve at capacity,, regardless of age or grade.

Flexible scheduling, says Mrs. Higgins, permits varying class sizes that consider the needs of the children and the capabilities of the teacher.

For example, a larger group may meet for educational films, art, or creative writing. A small group may need specific skills in spelling, or arithmetic.

Some teachers are particularly adept in a subject may be used in several classes. Often, this involves team teaching, team planning, and frequent meetings among teachers to assess and evaluate.

Nongrading is not new. It recognizes individual differences in the learning ability of each child. Children in nongraded classes have been grouped by teachers who have worked with them previously and who feel that they would learn better in such an environment.

Those in graded classes were selected the same way. Considered by teachers in the selection are the child's personality, intelligence, size, maturity, age, drive, and relationship to other children.

PEP Program

The PEP (Physical Education Plus) program is new. Assistants from State and Grossmont organize the work with the children on the Presidents Physical Fitness Program daily at noon. This is in addition to the regular physical education program. Through association with these assistants of college age, a model is provided in behavior, good sportsmanship, a desire for a better education, and a wholesome outlook on life.

To some extent, the generation gap is being bridged.

Both graded and nongraded children benefit from the language arts program (Federally funded) with full use of a speaking-listening electronics center, a writing center, and a reading center. Teacher aids make possible more individual training.

A State program (Miller-Unruh) makes possible a grouping of two or three for specialized training, if needed. The same program aids fifth graders in modern math.

A Valuing Program at Vista La Mesa, Mrs. Higgins says, is based on basic needs and concerns of every human. It teaches those understandings related to enlightment, affection, power, skill, respect, rec-

BULLETIN
Trustees Expel 19

Nineteen more students have been expelled from the Grossmont Union High School District by trustees for use or involvement with marijuana, narcotics or other dangerous druggs.

The 19 were expelled Monday niht. Deliberations of more than three hours took place by the trustees. Parents of students involved meet with the trustees individually in private hearings prior to the final statement.

The board reviewed three previous expulsions. They lifted two of them and voted to continue the expulsion on the third student.

Last month, the district expelled 32 students involved in drug usage.

Of those expelled at the Monday night. Deliberations were from Helix High School.

In other action the Board cancelled the second regular meeting in Dec. They also established a new school nurse position for the Special Education program.

The trustees received a proposal from Stuart Rubin, president of the Grossmont Federation of Teachers with a design to lower class size. The matter was postponed until the Jan. 6 meeting.

Retarded Home Aid Grows to 294 Total

Eighty-six more families joined the subscription program this newspaper is sponsoring to aid the Home of Guiding Hands.

The new list brings the total 294, with subscriptions coming in at the rate of about 10 a day.

In income, figuring each family's income at $8,000 (surveys show that local families — usually two or more people are employed — have a family income of slightly more than $8,000 in this area) the new subscribers alone generate more than $2,402,000 in spendable income.

A portion of the proceeds this publication receives from subscriptions is being given to the Home at 10025 Los Ranchitos rd., Lakeside.

The Home of Guiding Hands was opened in 1947 to care for mentally retarded folk, many of them children. The proceeds will be used specifically for andscaping the Home grounds.

All money raised by the Home comes from private contributions, investments, or public assistance such as this campaign.

The Home will require about $22,000 to complete the landscaping job — a part of which has already been completed.

Rev. David Bryant Elected To American Council Churches Executive Board

Sex Education, Pornography Hit

The Rev. David Bryant, pastor of the Bible Presbyterian Church in Lemon Grove has been elected to the Executive Board of the American Council of Christian Churches of California.

Rev. Bryant was elected to his post as 1st vice president on Nov. 21 at the 25th Annual State Convention held in Gardena, Calif.

The church pastor said that the convention delegates, numbering 125, passed 11 resolutions dealing with such items as Sex Education in Public Schools and the Sale of Pornographic Literature.

He said that the council expressed concern over the increasing efforts of certain individuals and groups to make "compulsary sex education" a part of the public school program in the State.

Rev. Bryant also pointed out that the council showed particular concern on the topic because many of the sex education programs being promoted either ignore the basic moral principles of Bible Scriptures or contradict the teachings of the church regarding moral purity and chastity.

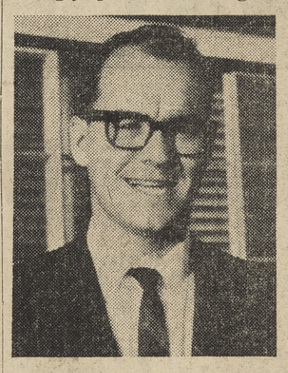
The council urged all delegates to let every parent know that he or she has a special obligation to investigate the sex education programs which may be instituted or contemplated in their own school districts.

In addition, the council said that many of the same leaders who want sex education in the school are active in programs designed to bring about changes in civil laws in homosexuality and other sexual deviations.

They said that the changes would bring the deviations out of the realm of sin and law breaking into the realm of respectability and normal behavior.

Protest Public Schools Teaching Religion

In other action, the council strongly protested the growing practices in schools throughout the nation, and the state, of "teaching religion in the public schools."



Rev. David Bryant

They said that the teachings at the taxpayers expense appear in school curriculum under various higher critical titles such as: "The Bible as Literature", "Comparative Religions", "Contemporary Religious Thought", and others.

Rev. Bryant said that the group has called upon the State Legislature to draft and adopt effective legislation without delay on the sale and distribution of pornographic literature within the State.

Underground Papers Hit

A protest was indicated in the so-called underground newspapers in what they are printing and disseminating as articles and advertisements.

They said they the newspapers cater to the degenerate mind and tend to give our youth the impression that all types of sexual perversion and aberration is normal and good.

In another resolution, the council called upon Governor Ronald Reagan, the State Legislature, the Board of Regents and the administrations of the Calif. State Colleges and Universities to take immediate Let no one imagine that it is a strained and unnatural thing for one to pray. The contrary is much closer to the fact. It is far more unnatural for one not to pray. Prayer is one of the most natural of human instincts. Prayer is man's response to the divine will.

High School Group Works On Special Xmas Gift Drive

Monte Vista High School is assisting the Tuberculosis and Health Association by sponsoring a Christmas gift drive which opened Nov. 25.

Students are being asked to donate new gifts for the tuberculosis patients and their families, since the patients cannot shop for themselves. Gifts will be collected for both sexes of all age groups.

Patients will choose gifts they wish to give to their families and then wrap the gift themselves. The shop and art classes will make a special contribution to the drive by decorating the custodian's cart like a Christmas sleigh.

This year's goal for the entire event is to top last year's success. "Last year 495 gifts and $57.42 in cash were collected," Mrs. Irene Gwinnup, the school nurse, said.

"This year we hope the students will give even more."

It is believed the inspiration for characterizing Uncle Sam with a long beard, striped pants, and tall hat may have come from Dan Rice, a circus clown years ago.

Learn Spanish the Easy Way

Hardison's Telespanish

by James Hardison

What are some of the Spanish words that relate to giving directions? For example how does one say "to the left," or "to the right?" Also, is there a way to say "return" and "straight ahead?"

Directions and the understanding of them can be most important while travelling in a Spanish speaking country. A common verb used in giving directions is "sigue," which means "continue." This may be followed by "a la derecha" (to the right) or "a la izquerda" (to the left).

By joining the phrase to the verb we may form a complete sentence such as "Sigue a la derecha." (Continue to the right.) or "Sigue a la izquerda." (Continue to the left.).

The word which implies "straight ahead" is "derecho." Thus we may say "Sigue derecho." for "Continue straight ahead." If the instruction refers to the word "turn" it usually identified as "voltea." We may then hear "Voltea a la derecha." for the expression "Turn to the right." or "Voltea a la izquierda." for "Turn to the left."

Many time a direction will refer to so many streets or blocks before a turn is to be made. "Cuadras" or "manzanas" are words that are used to identify street blocks. Thus an instruction may be "Voltea despues de tres manzanas." for "Turn after the next three blocks."

Today's practice lesson contains phrases related to giving directions. See if you can larn to say them with the help of the automatic voice when you dialy 276-2762 on your telephone. The voice will lead you in saying each word and phrase.

IMPORTANT PHRASES

Say "A la derecha, por favor." (ah lah deh-REH-cha pohr fah-VOHR) for "To the right, please."
Say "A la izquierda." (ah lah ees-kee-EHR-dah)

USEFUL PHRASES

Say "Sigue para dos manzanas." (SEEgeh PAH-rah dohs mahn-SAH-nahs)
for "Continue for two blocks."
Say "Voltea a la dercha." (bohl-TEH-ah ah lah deh-REH-chah)
for "Turn to the right."

OTHER PHRASES

Say "Voltea alla." (vohl-TEH-ah ah-YAH)
for "Turn over there."
Say "Donde volteo?" (DOHN-deh vohl-TEH-oh)
for "Where do I turn?"

Tongue Captures Students' Eye

When a three foot live lizard belonging to Kyle Foch, a Monte Vista junior, flicked out his 3 inch tongue in one of Robert Conger's Spanish classes, a slight shiver tingled throughout the room.

It turned out that this was Kyle's answer to class assignment by Conger.

"It is a sophisticated version of the 'show and tell' activity common in grade school," explained Conger.

The students were required to bring in some object from a Spanish-speaking country. They had to tell, in Spanish, where they bought it, what it is made of, and used for.

Kyle had bought a lizard imported from South America and brought it to school in a large box.

Susie McMahon and Laurie Lindlan also had interesting objects for the class, said Conger.

They had gone to La Cosina Restaurant in Grossmont Center to find out from a cook how to make Bunuelos. These are tortillas prepared in a special way, with cinnamon on them, said Conger.

"More Toys for more Tots" has become the newest slogan of the San Diego 20th Anniversary to make this year's children program better than ever.

This year, the 200th Anniversary, Inc., will give a "Lifetime Lucky" 200th Anniversary plastic souvenir coin to every child bringing in a new toy for the collection drive.

"The drive this year is to obtain more new toys," according to Rich McArthur, assistant project co-ordinator for the bicentennial celebration group.

"In the past, old toys have been collected and renovated at Viejas Honor Camp, and then distributed. But we are running out of old toys, and the 200th is working with other groups to obtain new toys."

Helix Cagers Travel To Chula Vista For Preseason Clash

By DON KIENER
Helix High Basketball Writer

The Helix High School varsity basketball team will travel to Chula Vista as they take the Chula Vista High School Spartans on Tuesday, Dec. 10, at 7:30 p.m. in the fourth game of their preseason schedule.

Helix has yet to play Castle Park and Hilltop in what may be the most challenging preseason schedule in the county. It consists of San Diego, Hoover, and Madison in addition to those previously mentioned.

In their debut, the Scots dumped a strong San Diego squad, 62-45, taking an early lead and keeping it throughout the game.

Junior guard Mike Dupree canned 26 points with 8 field goals while sinking 10 of 11 from the charity stripe.

Senior guard Bruce Menser scored 11, junior forward Dave Unroe had 6, and senior piviotman Bruce Walton scored 4.

Drop Hoover

The following night the Highlanders stunned rugged Hoover, 77-62, after trailing, 18-12, at the end of the first quarter. The Scots then bounced back to out score the Cardinals, 65-44, thereafter.

The Highlanders well balanced attack was again led by the two guards Dupree and Menser with 16 points each. Madison and Unroe were close behind, each scoring 15, and Walton had 14.

The stunning victories over the balanced clubs has been surprising. The Scotties are minus their regular center Bill Walton who stands 6 feet 10 inches and had the highest scoring average of the entire team during Summer League play.

Helix also boasts a very fine bench in guards Mike Getz and John Wickersham, and forwards Buch Paddock and Dan Coleman. Rounding out the squad are Gary Nobiensky and Mike Murphy.

Tournament champion with low gross was Bill Carey. Low net went to Ben Santos. Trophies and prizes were awarded at Pal's Cafe, Lemon Grove. A chicken buffet was held after the presentation.

The Sportsmen will swing into action again, on Dec. 22, when the 65 members travel to the Coronado golf course for their next tournament.

Pop Warner Officer's Induction Is Dec. 9

Helix Wins, 70-67

The Helix High School basketball team continued to move ahead winning their third straight in preseason play Tuesday as they edged out Madison High School 76-67.

Scoring for Helir was as follows: Bruce Menser, 17 points; Randy Madsen, 16; Mike Dupree, 12; Bill Walton, 10; Butch Paddock, 6; Dave Unroe, 5; Mike Getz, 2, and Dan Coleman, 1.

Scoring by quarters:
Helix : 13-20-20-17=70

Monarchs Receive Awards In Water Polo, Football

By SCOTT McGAUGH

Several Monte Vista High School athletes received individual honors last week for their eforts in water polo and football.

Rob Morell, a junior, was named to the All-League CIF water polo squad as one of three guards on the seven-man team. Morell received honorable mention honors last year.

Gordon Dunnill, Mike Davis, and John Krattli was named on the second team as Monte Vista placed four men on the first two teams — more than any other school in San Diego County.

The Grossmont All-League football squad was named last week with Dennis Weikel of Monte Vista named as one of the linebackers on the defensive squad.

Weikel was a linebacker for the Monarchs and was the mainstay of one of the toughest ground defenses in the league this year.

Monarch Vince Campoli was named to the second offensive unit as a running back.

Those Monarchs receiving honorable mention in football are Steve Etchings, Bob Thompson, Bill Worden and Dan Thorpe.

The Grossmont All-League selections in cross country will be made soon with such Monarchs as Dave Carter, Joe Mears, Ray Santos, and Tom Lux candidates for the All-League harrier honors.

Monte Vista Harriers Take CIF Crown; Dave Carter Paces Undefeated Team To Victory

By SCOTT McGAUGH
Monte Vista Sports Writer

The Monte Vista High School cross country squad won the large school CIF cross country title last Wednesday on a hilly Santana course.

The Monarchs, who were favored to place six men in the top ten could do no better than second, fifth, eight, 17th and 2nd but still won the team title.

Monarch Dave Carter, favored to win, took second in the race behind Charles Ledbetter of Kearny with a time of 10:46. Carter pulled away at the start but fell victim to a great final mile by Ledbetter.

Placing behind Carter were Neil Wilson, fifth; Ray Santos, eighth; Joe Mears, 17th; and Tom Lux 22nd.

Monte Vista won with a low of 54 team points. Point Loma followed with 74 and Oceanside with 105. The victory gave the Monarchs their fifth CIF title in six years.

In the Pacific Southwest AAU cross country district championships at UCSD Saturday, Monte Vista had two runners place first in their divisions.

Monarch Tom Lux won the 10th grade race in 17:40. Gilbert Arroyo took the 11th grade division in 17.31. Both harriers ran unattached.

The CIF Finals completed of Monte Vista's most outstanding seasons in cross country.

The Monarchs won the MT. SAC Invitational, were undefeated in league play, won the Aztec Invitational and took first in the CIF Finals.

Cross Country Runners Take Eight Places

By TOM WARREN
Helix High Sports Writer

The Helix varsity cross country team took eighth place in the CIF large school finals, held Nov. 27 at Santana.

The Scots were again led by senior Darryl Simmons, as he finished in third position with a time of 10:50.

Other than Simmons' performance, however, Helix was only able to capture positions 23, 33, 40, and 44 in their final bid of the year. These spots were taken by Dennis Rodgers, Curt Smith, Steve Pitt, and Robin Schultz, respectively.

Highlander coach Mike Muirhead was pleased with the team's performance in the meet and pointed out that, "with 45 teams in the county, a number eight rating is a fine effort."

The Scot coach also noted that Helix was the only team in the meet which had only one senior running, thus improving its chances for the 1969 season.

Junior High School Girl's Athletic Clubs Hosts Tilt

Spring Valley Junior High's Girls' Athletic Club hosted 96 girls from La Mesa Junior High and Parkway Junior High in a volley tennis competition recently in Spring Valley.

The event had an olympic flavor as each team selected symbols representing olympic sports. Even an olympic trash container was provided, and an olympic "punch" bowl.

At one time the entire playing area was used. Eight courts being used, nine girls to a team. Three players from each school formed the teams in an elimination and consolation tournament.

The Wheels rolled to victory, drowning out the Drips in the finals. Representing S.V.J.H. on the winning team were Karen Hallmark, Barbara Weekly, and Mary Healey. Second place awards went to Cathy Nush, Linda Johnson, and Debra Malcom.

The first place winners of the consolation tournament went to Kathi Cobb and Marla Conrey of the Sugar Pops, and representing the runnerups were Kathy Dowell and Terri Clark.

While Harl Brown, principal, observed the competition, James Gray, vice-principal commenting on the action, said, "The girls have everything so well organized that we're just watching."

Gray may have had one favorite team, for his daughter, Linda, an eighth grader at L.M.J.H., was playing for the Touches. Keesey, 8th grade counselor, also had an eighth grade daughter, Kathy from Parkway, in the competition.

Punch and cake were served, the cake being donated by Mary Healey's father, a professional baker. Mary is an eighth grader at S.V.J.H. and helped lead her team to victory.

The coaches Miss Kahle Bingham, Parway; Miss Arlene Karns, La Mesa; and Miss Katherine Vinson and Mrs. Suzanne Blunt, Spring Valley, were assisted by 25 referees.

Three Monte Vista students, Claire Duckworth, sophomore, and Janet Phillips and Sherrie Dey, feshman, also helped in the judging.

All are former students of Spring Valley Junior High School.

In the second period David Gann hauled in two Jess Jenner passes for touchdowns. Doug Gegax and Eddie Morris scored on conversion plays.

In the third quarter Dan Huff dropped the Calexico quarterback in his own end zone for a two point safety. In the same period of play Jenner scored.

Jenner passed to Gary Klusman for the extra point conversion.

In the final quarter, Gegax scored. Mike Benson added the point-after to complete the Roadrunner scoring.

steps to restore order to the colleges.

They said that the present situation where a minority of students and facuty members threaten lives, destroy property and interfere with the administration is intolerable.

"Students who refuse to abide by school regulations are not entitled to receive an education at the taxpayers expense," the council said.

They continued: "We believe that faculty members and administrators who advocate violence or encourage student rebellion and revolution should be disciplined and dropped from the payroll if they participate in such activities.

"We stand with public officials, school administrators, faculty members and students who desire to see law and order upheld."

SHOWFOLK — Bruce Nelson, of Lemon Grove, discusses scenery and lighting for the re-opening of Circle Arts theatre with Jean Storey.

Local Showfolk Help Make Circle Arts Glisten Again

Two local people will have whopping parts in the new season at Circle Arts theatre when it opens tonight with the staging of "She Loves Me", starring Pate White and Ole Kittleson.

Bruce Nelson, a supervisor for the H. Anderson Co., a theatrical lighting firm, is production co-ordinator and lighting designer for the show. He supervises the crews moving the scenery, handling the costumes, placement of the performers, and, in short, he supervises the running of the show.

Jean Storey who lives nearby at 4444 68th st., designed the costumes for "She Loves Me". She has designed theatrical costumes for more than ten years.

Both are loud in praise for the new venture which reopens Circle Arts. Said Nelson: "It's the beginning of a community-oriented theatrical venture where people in all fields of art may display their wares."

"It's something the community has needed," said Mrs. Storey. "Finally, artists have their own theatre — one that does not have a make-shift stage — a place to show their ability in a proper setting. We can showcase things that other groups have left out," she said.

Nelson has worked with Circle Arts and with Starlight Opera. He taught at CalWestern and at San Diego Adult School. He directed, performed, and produced plays at S.D. State. He was producer and technical director for "Guys and Dolls" at the San Diego Community theatre.

"She Loves Me" begins a three weeks run and is offered each Thursday, Friday, Saturday and Sunday.

S.D. Publishers Sue Each Other

SAN DIEGO (CNA) — The former and the present owners of the San Diego Independent have asked for the Superior Court to decide a dispute between the buyer and seller.

Elliott L. Cushman, principal for the sellers, brought the action against Bruce Sagan and two corporations explaining the dispute and asking for adjudication.

Sagan answered with his own claims and contends that Cushman and his group should tane the newspaper back and return all payments and losses to Sagan, said to be $400,000.

This is the only sum of money mentioned in the court files.

The plaintiffs are Arizona Farmer-Ranchman, a California corporation, formerly the Southwest Color Press, Cushman, Sara Cushman, Alvin Cushman, and Helen Cushman as trustee for Lawrence and Stephen Cushman.

Sagan is one of the defendants along with the Southwest Press and San Diego Independent corporations.

The paper was sold to Sagan on Sept. 6, 1966, and the building leased, according to the file. The building is at 348 Market, San Diego, and separate editions of the paper are published for San Diego, South Bay, East County, and North County, all under the free distribution system.

Cushman claims that the sellers have performed all of the duties called for in the sale. He claims that Sagan has not done so, including failure to submit a certified financial statement.

Sagan, on the other hand, claims that the financial position of the Cushman operation was "grossly misrepresented" in that there was a loss from Jan. 1, 1966 to Oct. 3, 1966 of $85,000 that was not disclosed

He claims that a Fairchild King Rotary Press was not delivered as part of the transaction.

Cushman claims that the agreements are all valid and enforceable and that Sagan is bound to pay the balance of the sales price, compensation, and rent. He claims the sellers never received the consideration bargained for.

Both sides ask for a declaration of their rights and duties.

Beautiful Carpet —But It Stinks

SAN DIEGO (CNA) — Things are smelling badly these days at the county assesor's office in the county administration center in San Diego.

It seems, in fact, that the bad smell is coming from under a new rug that was installed during a recent remodeling project.

It is not a case of something being swept under the rugs. The smell appears to be coming from the rug mat which is naturally under the rug.

Cy Weiler, director of public works, said the situation of a smelly rug pad has occurred before and that is gradually goes away.

The rug was not a part of the construction project, but was a special purchase by the county. Weiler said the county had seemed to have an excellent contract for the purchase of many yards of rug, until the smell.

Weiler said he will recommend strongly that each contract for remodeling contains the provision that the contractor furnish the rug himself.

There might even be something in the specifications about evil smells.

The Primary Educationally Handicapped class at Vista La Mesa is for nonachievers with more intelligence than their grades indicate.

Help

A subsidiary benefit from this program is another acronym HELP (Help for Each Learning Partner) in which youngsters 10 and 11 years old read to E.H. children as a learning partner.

He not only aids the slow learner but improves his own reading skill. What's more, Mrs. Higgins reports, the youngsters come to school befre normal starting time to participate in the program.

The older child also gains respect and a feeling of self-worth and importance.

The key to the whole program, Mrs. Higgins points out, is interest. Learning can't be regulated by bells or calendars, she says. Her school has no bells except for coming in from the playground. Said one teacher, "I wish I could get them to go to recess as easily as I can get them to come in!" Maintaining such interest will cut the number of drop-outs in higher grades, educators say.

The VISA program has made greater demands for room space; greater demands of teachers' time, and changes in work habits of all including custodians, cafeteria workers, teachers, and students.

But the "knowledge explosion" is on at Vista La Mesa!

Teachers and students were exposed to Modern Math recently.

That was followed this year by new English based on generative transformational grammar; new spelling textbooks with a linguistic approach, and new music textbooks.

Science textbooks and portable laboratory kits, and Health books are also new this year.

These programs, some of which are pilot programs for other schools, had the encouragement and support of Byron Netzley and Sam Solleder, District Superintendent and his assistant. Project Director for the District is Dr. Robert Sutton, former principal of L.G. Junior High School.

Many parents will remember Mrs. Higgins as the first area educator to teach modern math. She has attracted national attention with her various programs.

AROUND SPRING VALLEY

Community Council Displays Spring Valley Unity Theme

By TOMMY THOMAS
Spring Valley Editor

The old saying, "In Unity There Is Strength," has a lot of sense and meaning. Unity can be for a good cause or it can be for a detrimental cause and often is used in both cases.

Here in Spring Valley we like to think of unity as a means of a successful end to a program of one type or another.

A few nights ago the Spring Valley Community Council had a good attendance with over 50 persons representing local service clubs and organizations.

Acting president William "Bill" Fitzpatrick said he was encouraged by the enthusiasm shown by those attending the meeting.

He said there seemed to be a spirit of good fellowship prevailing over the entire meeting and it seemed that it was the start of something big for Spring Valley.

"Enthusiasm" or "Unity" if you may, is another way of saying working or pulling together. Remember the historical insigna that read "United we stand, divided we part."

We don't intend to have any parting, but when we see people working together for one common cause, such as local service clubs programs and organizations, then we may be assured something worth while is being done.

Good Example

A good example of "unity" or "working together" occurred in Spring Valley several years ago, when the Chamber of Commerce decided to expand its building.

Officers and members got their heads together and did a lot of planning about how to raise money and what type of building to construct after the money was raised.

It wasn't too long before the program was being carried out, with local fairs, dinners, carnivals, bazaars and other means of acquiring the necessary preliminary money.

It was unity from the beginning until the job was completed.

Local persons (and even a few not in the Valley) who had special talents came forward to offer their services.

The Jean Eskridge School of Dancing presented many a show for the benefit of the new building. Betty Seymour Robinson, an early member of the Chamber, wrote a pageant of Spring Valley history, which was presented in front of the old adobe building. (Actors in the pageant were local talent).

Bill Doughman, who was president of the Chamber of Commerce a couple of times, spent many an hour helping with the maintenance of the building (Bill recently died in Oregon).

Another show to raise funds was presented in the La Mesa Junior High School by Spring Valley talent, under the title, "You Can't Beat Fun," for which many tickets were sold.

Nearly the entire Chamber of Commerce building (and hall) was volunteer worker constructed, and the hall in the building has been known county wide as one of the finest "dancing floors" in the county.

"In Unity There is Strength." Spring Valley has shown it is a true statement and that can be used in any program to help the community or humanity.

Light Rain Falls Here

The rain which came on Saturday was credited to Sunday by the local weather station at the Fire House.

The rain, all .06 inches of it, fell after 4 p.m. Nnv. 30. Rainfall days end at that time.

The showers brought the season's total to 1.13 which was described by the station operator as "not so hot." Yet, it is only .43 inches behind last year's 1.56 on this date.

Rainfall seasons begin July 1.

Christmas Lights

Lights at three areas in Balboa Park were turned on Sunday to provide Christmas cheer in evenings throughout the month of December.

Lights on a 50-foot Christmas tree in the Orggan Pavilion area, and a string of lights on Christmas Tree Lane, extending along Laurel st., the Cabrillo Bridge and El Prado were turned on.

Lights of a new scene, "Mission in the Sky," at the west end of Cabrillo Bridge will be turned on at the conclusion of a program Sunday at the Organ Pavilion.

Youth Basketball League Attracts 120 Valley Boys

Registration for youths wanting to play in the Spring Valley Youth Basketball League will close out Saturday at noon, at the Mt. Miguel High School gymnasium, 1800 Sweetwater rd., Spring Valley.

Boys in grades four through nine are welcome to participate, according to recreation district officials. To date more than 120 boys have signed up for the league.

On Dec. 21 assignment day will be held. All boys will try out for their respective positions starting at 10 a.m. at the Mt. Miguel High School.

A medium sized apple tree on a mid-summer day, takes in about 94 gallons of water but the leaf pores then emit about 96 percent to the air.

Junior High Students Collect Canned Foods

Donations of canned food to the Spring Valley Welfare crowded the school stage as seventh and eighth graders vied to outdo one another in a canned foo drive last week at Spring Valley Junior High.

Some of the donations were used for Thanksgiving while others will be used as Christmas food baskets for those in need locally, according to Mrs. Howard Allen, Health and Welfare chairman of the S.V.J.H. Parent Teacher's Association.

The seventh graders had an early lead but were defeated on the last day as the eighth graders contributed 579 pounds and $5.36 to 472 pounds and $3 for the seventh grade.

The total contribution barely fit in the back of Mrs. Allen's station wagon.

Mrs. Henrietta McIlwee, school nurse and coordinator for the drive, reported that one student, Ralph Ek, a seventh grader, had brought in 80 cans and $3 in contributions.

Ek reportedly had walked from door to door in his neighborhood asking for contributions.

The drive was a big success, according to Mrs. McIlwee. The eighth graders were presented with a ticket at school which was good for one ice cream bar 15 minutes before the close of school Wednesday.
